

Gulchehra Shavkatovna Zununova

Doctor of Historical Sciences (DSc),

Leading Researcher

e-mail: zunnunova@yahoo.com

Position: Senior Researcher, Department of Interdisciplinary Research, National Center of Archeology of the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

Education:

In 1980, she graduated from the History Department of Tashkent State University

In 1991, at the Institute of History of the Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan, she defended her PhD thesis on "Economic and cultural cooperation between Uzbekistan and Tajikistan (1975-1985)»

In 2017 the Institute of history of Academy of Sciences of Uzbekistan defended his doctoral dissertation (DSc) on the topic "Transformation of material culture of Uzbeks in Tashkent (XX - beginning of XXI centuries)"

Research interests: Material culture (theory, traditions, and rituals), ethnic etiquette, marriage, life cycle rituals, Diaspora, ethnic identity, anthropology of food, ritual calendar.

Main publications:

1. Material culture of the Uzbeks of Tashkent: transformation of traditions. - Tashkent, 2013. - 300 p.

2. On the question of the ritual rites of the Uzbeks // O'zbekiston tarixi. - Tashkent, 2002. - No. 1. - pp. 72-78.

3. Ritual Uzbek food // International Journal of Central Asia Studies. - Seoul, 2002. - No. 7. - C. 109-118.

4. Features of marriage in the system of Eastern civilization // International Journal of Central Asia Studies. -